

Sunshine Girl

Text von Ilse Zacharias

I remember her laugh and smile all day long I still hear her sing her favorite song
She was so lively and gay in such a radiant way We loved each other, and I hoped she would share my life with me, and that nothing would tear the two of us apart
but now she has broken my heart

R.:

She was my sunshine girl
we had so much fun but I couldn't promise her a life filled with sun
She was my sunshine girl
not made for the rain
now that the sun has gone I'll never see her again

Her love is like a merry-go-round her life's just a dance to her favorite sound She wants to fly ever so high She's like the lark in the sky We've had good times; everything seemed O.K., as long as we had our great sunny day yet when rain clouds covered the sky
My sunshine girl just had to fly

R.: she was my sunshine girl...

Bridge:

She's never been the one to bear
those rainy days;
she wouldn't share
the darkness of my life.
No, she'll never be my wife!

R.: she was my sunshine girl
